Salvador Molly's Turns Up the Heat!

13th Annual Fundraiser for Oregon Heat

DARE to Eat Great Balls of Fire to Raise $$ for Those Less Fortunate

What: 13th Annual Great Balls of Fire "Trial by Fire" fundraiser for Oregon Heat, a non-profit organization assisting low-income households with paying their heating bills.

How: Proceeds from every order of "Great Balls of Fire" habanero & cheese fritters will be donated to non-profit Oregon Heat during the entire month of February. All year long, restaurant customers are "dared" to eat all 5 fritters to earn their picture on Salvador Molly's Hall of Flame. Almost 24K orders of the dish were ordered in 2009. There will be alternate food & drink items on the menu in February for those who want to donate but can't stand the heat!

The month-long fundraiser will kick-off Saturday, January 30th with the "Toughest Tongue in the West" eating challenge. Local media personalities and character "Freaks in Heat" will gather to compete for the title by eating the most "Great Balls of Fire". Last year's winner Ben Plont, dressed as a snake wrangler complete with helmet and goggles, ate 20 "Great Balls of Fire". He attributed his win to lots of conditioning with jalapenos and insanity sauce.

Where: Salvador Molly's – 1523 SW Sunset Blvd, Hillsdale, 97239 – (503) 293-1790

When: "Toughest Tongue in Town" Kick-off Challenge – Saturday, Jan 30th - 12 noon

"King or Queen of Heat Final challenge – Sunday, February 28th

All month long in the restaurant, proceeds from your Great Balls of Fire orders will be donated to Oregon Heat.
